

MRC Employment Support Services Co-ordinator

The Migrant Resource Centre is seeking to employ a culturally astute services co-ordinator for a new program. This program will facilitate employment outcomes for people from African and emerging communities. This project is funded by the Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations (DEEWR) for two and a half years.

Would you enjoy working approximately 22.5 hours/week beginning March 2010?

We would like to hear from you if you:

- Have experience working with people from other cultures including an appropriate second language
- Wish to support and help people from African communities
- Have detailed knowledge of working with Job Service Agencies
- The ability to train, motivate and explore opportunities

If you believe you are this person and committed to making a difference contact the Migrant Resource Centre (Sthn Tas) Inc

on 6221 0999 or email reception@mrchobart.org.au for a copy of the selection criteria.

Only applications addressing the selection criteria submitted in writing and marked Confidential to the Migrant Resource Centre by 5.00pm MONDAY 15TH MARCH 2010 will be accepted.
